

Presentation to Community
Wessington Springs Junior High FCCLA Chapter
2018-2019

SACC meetings feature informative programs on local projects

PHOTOS COURTESY GAIL ARNOTT

LEFT: The city pool task force made up of Wessington Springs citizen volunteers presented to SACC about its fact-finding work being done on behalf of the city to investigate the viability of the pool's future. Shown left to right are: Ryan Jensen, Kristi Hine, Sandy Beckman, Jeanna Shafer, Teri Mebius and Pam Hainy. RIGHT: Heather Haberman (left) and Wessington Springs High School student Sarah Raterman spoke about Jessy's Toy Box, a project that aims to present toys and gifts to children with severe medical issues.

Sarah Raterman, a Junior High FCCLA member, delivered a presentation about Jessy's Toy Box, one of the chapter's community service projects to the Springs Area Community Club on December 18th, 2018. She also worked with Heather Haberman, Jessy's mother, to present information about Jessy's Toy Box to the Wessington Springs Middle School/High School students.

SACC Meeting 12/18/18

Sarah Raterman, Wessington Springs High School student and Heather Haberman were the featured speakers at the noon meeting of the Wessington Springs Area Community Club at the Springs Inn on December 18. They spoke about their work with Jessy's Toy Box a project which strives to present gifts to children with severe medical issues. More information is available on the website <https://jessystoybox.wixsite.com/website> or by contacting Heather at (701) 899-3581.

